

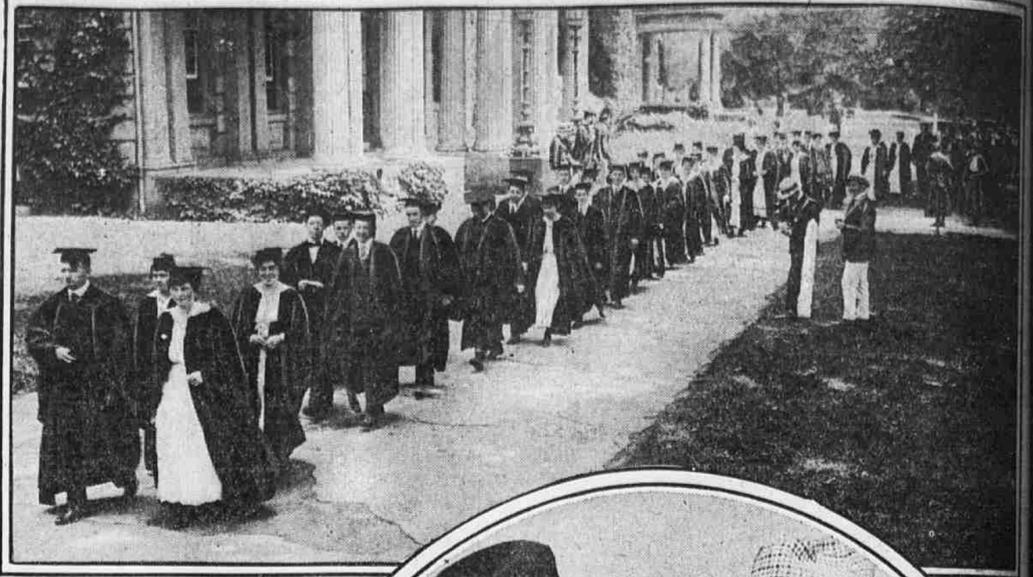

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

GRADUATING CLASS MARCHES IN PROCESSION TO FINAL EXERCISES AT SWARTHMORE

There were 83 members of the class, divided into 47 women and 36 men. Only a little more than half the class came from Pennsylvania.

Photo by International Film Service.

TWO GENTLEMEN REALLY FROM MISSOURI

Governor Elliot Major, for whom his friends are trying to start a vice presidential boom, and Colonel S. H. Rumsey.

Photo by Staff Photographer.
DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AT COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF SWARTHMORE

Left to right are Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, Isaac Clothier, Governor Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana; Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore College, and Robert M. Janney, president of the board of managers.

Photo by International Film Service.

ON THE GROUND AT ST. LOUIS

Senator Tom Taggart, of Indiana, arrived without a mistake, so changing his appearance his friends didn't know him.

Photo by International Film Service.

THE OFFICIAL DONKEY FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

He is being led into the convention hall, so that he may familiarize himself with its surroundings, by Miss Emily Young, secretary to Chairman William F. McCombs. Citizens of St. Louis presented her with the animal as a token of esteem.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

WHERE THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION WILL OPEN TOMORROW

The Auditorium in St. Louis is certain to be a far less noisy place than that at Chicago, also it will be quieter than the Chicago Coliseum, for the Democrats need go only through the motions of a convention this year.

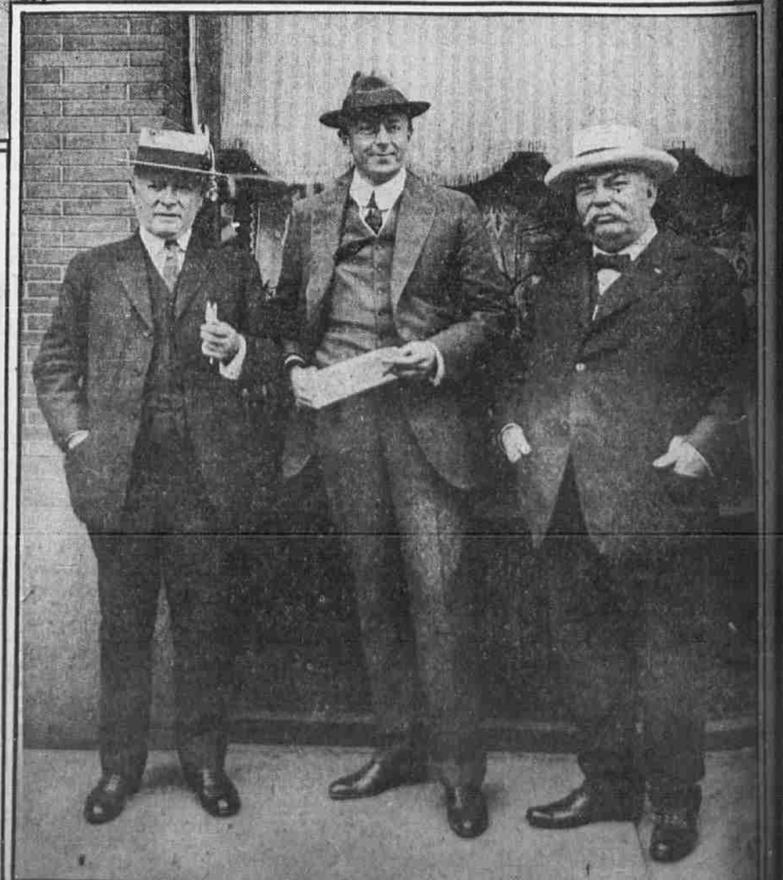

Photo by International Film Service.

A TRIO OF VETERANS WHO CAME EARLY FOR THE ST. LOUIS SHOW

Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Homer S. Cummings, of Connecticut, and Robert Ewing, of Louisiana.